

Development economics crossword

Try completing the crossword below on development economics terms and definitions

Across

2. A regional trade agreement between European countries
6. The removal of barriers to trade such as import quotas and tariffs
7. A A regional trade agreement between North American countries
8. A spiral that prevents countries from developing
9. An improvement in the lives of all people in the country
10. A government policy when the government attempts to replace imports with domestically produced goods
11. An increase in the productive potential of the economy

Down

1. A type of foreign aid where separate countries pay money into one central organisation and it then determines who receives money
3. Overseas investment by multinational corporations
4. The adoption by a country of policies to protect their domestic industries from foreign competition
5. The international transfer of public and private funds in the form of loans or grants from donor countries to recipient countries
12. A measure produced by the United Nations (UN) which measures poverty, literacy, education, life expectancy, and other factors

Across

13. An agreement between any two countries in relation to the terms they trade with each other on
15. Programmes that extend small loans to very poor people for self-employment projects that generate income
16. A type of foreign aid that is given in response to an international crisis

Down

14. A regional trade agreement between South-East Asian nations
15. A large company owning subsidiaries and producing in a number of countries